COURSES | LEARNING AGREEMENT | RECOGNITION

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Being accepted for a special study programme at the Angewandte means that you are automatically eligible to participate in the main artistic course of that programme.
- In most of the curricula, the main artistic course is called *Zentrales künstlerisches Fach (ZkF). You can attend one main artistic course per semester which you are expected to participate. If you do not want to participate, please, let your professor know in the first meeting of the semester.
- You have to do your main artistic course in your department but you can essentially visit electives in any other department given there is a spot and it is open for co-registration.
- We do not have a statutory programme per level | per semester | per year.
- There are no separate courses for exchange students. As all other students at the Angewandte, you can choose your courses individually. Most of the departments offer recommendations for exchange students, though. Therefore: Be at the kick-off meeting of your department at the beginning of the semester.

COURSE-SELECTION

- To search and choose your courses, you do not have to log in.
- Go to our BASE website (base.uni-ak.ac.at), choose semester -> choose your programme out of all study programmes -> choose the subject group out of curriculum subjects. To choose courses outside of your programme: Similar procedure as above but you have to watch out for „co-registration possible“ (-> all study programmes)
- Detailed course information (examination modalities, curriculum allocation, ECTS, etc.) is provided in the description of each course. Please note: diploma study programmes are divided into 1. section (equivalent to BA-level) and 2. section (equivalent to MA-level).
- Be aware that course descriptions are available in English only if teaching staff provided English texts. Note: Not all courses can be held in English.

REGISTRATION OF COURSES

- Your Learning Agreement will be always signed by our Head of the International Office Astrid Anna Behrens.
- Please don't send us a blank document. Table A and B have to be filled out, at least with links.
- Your signed Learning Agreement does not automatically mean you have a spot in the chosen course (except your artistic major). You do have to officially register for it.
- Please make sure to reach the obligatory ECTS-points of your university. In most countries it is 30 ECTS-points per semester but it may differ.
- Eventually the transcript of records is the most important document to reach your goal of ECTS-points. You will receive it by the Student Office at the end of your stay.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS | LEARNING GERMAN

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

- We do not request a language certificate.
Nevertheless, we strongly recommend at basic knowledge of German, as the general teaching language at our university is German. For applications in Graphics and Advertising, knowledge in German on B1-B2-level is obligatory.
- We expect a profound knowledge of English (B2) from all students because in most departments, English is commonly used as a working language.
- Theory classes are hard to follow without a substantial knowledge of German.
- We strongly recommend attending a German course before and during your exchange in Vienna. Erasmus+ students anyways will be registered for the Online Language Support (OLS) by their home university.
- A free German course is offered by the Students' Union of the Angewandte (hufak) during the semester. Please note: As this course is not part of any curricula and is held by an external institute, you will not be able to receive any credits (ECTS) for your Transcript of Records but your home university may recognize the certificate for ECTS. Please ask at your home institution.
- Currently, there are four study programmes offered in English, all of which require knowledge of English on a scientific level (min. C1).

You may learn German also outside of our university, e.g. at the Sprachenzentrum (sprachenzentrum.univie.ac.at/en/) of the University of Vienna or options for free may be a language tandem or so-called Sprachcafés: wienextra.at/jugendinfo/infos-von-a-z/deutsch-sprechen-sprachcafes/

Free and reasonable priced German classes also offered by Innes Institute Vienna (innesvienna.net) with which our Students' Union cooperates.

HISTORY AND EDUCATIONAL ASSIGNMENT

FROM THE IMPERIAL ROYAL ARTS AND CRAFTS SCHOOL TO THE "ANGEWANDTE" OF TODAY

by Patrick Werkner, Former Head of Collection and Archive

In the heart of Vienna, the capital of the Danube monarchy, the predecessor institution of the current University of Applied Arts, the Imperial Royal Arts and Crafts School, was founded in 1867. It was closely affiliated with the Imperial Royal Austrian Museum of Art and Industry (today the MAK), the first Arts and Crafts museum on the European continent. It was established in 1863 following the example of the South Kensington Museum in London, now the Victoria & Albert Museum, and was to serve as a collection of models for artists, industrialists, and the general public. At the time, early-industrialised England played a pioneer role in supporting a reformed Arts and Crafts movement in order to prevent its decline in the "Machine Age". In the spirit of Historicism, the aim was to make it possible, also in Vienna, to study the great styles of the past by example of Arts and Crafts objects in the museum and to set up a place of advanced education for designers and craftsmen with the Arts and Crafts School in Vienna. It should train artists and teachers in equal measure to serve the demands of the "art industry".

Heinrich von Ferstel, the architect of the museum building, was commissioned with the design for a separate building for the school. In 1877, the main building of our university, still in use to the day, was festively opened at its prominent location on the Ringstraße. In contrast to the Academy of Fine Arts, female students were allowed to study there from the very beginning. Gustav Klimt was but one of the numerous graduates from this era.

Along with the artistic development towards nature observation and free design, a break with work on the basis of historical precedents also took place at the Arts and Crafts School around the end of the nineteenth century. In 1899, Felician von Myrbach, a member of the newly-formed Viennese artists society Secession, was appointed as the director of the school, which was liberated from the administration of the museum in the following year. In Myrbach's term as director, there were numerous reforms and teacher appointments that made the Arts and Crafts School into one of the birthplaces of Austrian Jugendstil and founded its reputation as an institution committed to the modern. As a member of the curatorial board, Otto Wagner played a significant role in the implementation of the reforms. The teaching staff at that time reads like a Who's-Who of the today highly regarded "Vienna around 1900" with names such as Kolo Moser, Josef Hoffmann, Alfred Roller - who began his highly influential term as director in 1909 - and students with the like of Oskar Kokoschka.

The end of the monarchy also meant the end of the "Imperial Royal" Arts and Crafts School, although Roller's long term in office (until 1934) ensured the continuity of the high standard of artistic quality. Franz Cizek realised an educational reform programme with his highly regarded youth art courses. From Cizek's course for theories of ornamental form emerged "Viennese Kinetism", which only recently has (again) attained its international art historical recognition, where female artists - such as Erika Giovanna Klien - set the tone for the first time. Architects like Josef Frank, Oskar Strnad, and Oswald Haerdtl continued the tradition of "Wiener Raumkunst" (Viennese Spatial Art) and transformed it. Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky, graduate of the Arts and Crafts School, went on to invent the first serially-produced so-called "Frankfurt Kitchen", which had a sustainable effect in social housing.

During the National Socialist regime, the Vienna Arts and Crafts School was under the direct supervision of the "Reichskammer der bildenden Künste" (Reich Chamber of Visual Arts), numerous teachers and students were banned from studies, threatened and persecuted, the teaching activities brought into line. The graphics class, in particular, under the direction of Paul Kirnig, delivered visual propaganda for the purposes of the "Third Reich", which contributed to the Arts and Crafts School's elevation to the "Reichshochschule für angewandte Kunst in Wien" (Reich College of Applied Arts in Vienna).

After 1945, the now "College of Applied Arts" had a difficult start under the direction of Maximilian Fellerer. Its orientation along the lines of an art academy was also reflected in the name "Academy of Applied Arts" (between 1948 and 1971, thereafter "College" again). The broadened scope of the educational programme, the increasing number of students, and an extension to the school along the Vienna Canal following the plans of Karl Schwanzer (1965) were signs of expansion in a new age of economic upswing.

Between 1979 and 1995 the "Angewandte" transformed into a progressive institution under the direction of Oswald Oberhuber and Rudolf Burger, who (briefly) guided the academy from 1995 to 1999. Amongst the teachers in the fields of architecture, design, fine art, and theory in these decades were personalities such as Friedrich Achleitner, Christian Ludwig Attersee, Carl Auböck, Wander Bertoni, Joseph Beuys (as guest lecturer), Rudolf Burger, Jean-Charles de Castelbajac, Tino Erben, Adolf Frohner, Peter Gorsen, Hans Hollein, Wilhelm Holzbauer, Alfred Hrdlicka, Wolfgang Hutter, Karl Lagerfeld, Maria Lassnig, Bernhard Leitner, Walter Lürzer, Axel Manthey, Paolo Piva, Wolf D. Prix, Christian Reder, Jil Sander, Sigbert Schenk, Kurt Schwarz, Johannes Spalt, Mario Terzic, Peter Weibel, Manfred Wagner - to name but a few.

Rector Gerald Bast has been guiding the University of Applied Arts Vienna since 2000 - one year after a new legislative regulation transformed Austrian art colleges into universities. Gerald Bast's ambitious plan for an art university with flourishing content and a growing number of students keeps stride with this age of globalisation, a fact reflected by new study programmes and changing professorships.

OPEN-AIR-CINEMA | INDEPENDENT CINEMA

To find out about the coolest independent cinemas in Vienna, please have a look here: goodnight.at/magazin/kultur/442-die-schoensten-independent-kinos-in-wien. Mostly the films are played in Original language with subtitles. Burgkino (burgkino.at) and Haydnkino (haydnkino.at) show films in English language and the Breitenseer Lichtspiele (bsl-wien.at) is the oldest cinema in town with very special programme (e.g. silent film with live-music).

LIBRARIES

If you like to read, we would like to recommend the following big libraries. If you look for something more specific there are also heaps of little well-assorted libraries (e.g. the Sigmund Freud-library for Psychology). If you are in need of rare books, please look into the Central Directory of Antiquarian Books: zvab.com. And support our local book shops.

THINGS TO DO IN „NATURE“

WALKING | CYCLING | WEEKEND TRIPS

Besides the offered walking tours you also find free walking tours here:

wien.info/de/sightseeing/touren-guides/gratis-touren. WienzuFuss offers walking cafés:

wienzufuss.at/geh-cafe and has an app for your mobile device for walking tours by yourself:

wienzufuss.at/app. Here you can plan your trips by bike in Vienna (fahrradwien.at/routenplaner) and within Austria (eurovelo.at/en). For weekend trips, you are pretty fast in Bratislava, Prague or Budapest or on the Semmering, the closest mountain to Vienna, for walking tours and skiing.

VIENNA WOODS | LAINZER TIERGARTEN | STEINHOFGRÜNDE

Please have a look around the vineyards and the Kahlenberg as well as the big Vienna woods.

In autumn you can drink Austrian young wine named „Sturm“ which can make you quite drunk. ;) - In the Lainzer Tiergarten (lainzer-tiergarten.at) you can either have a good hike, walk or just have a stroll around with friends or see the Hermesvilla. The Steinhofgründe are a special spot in Vienna (stadtbekannt.at/spaziergaenge/ein-stueck-stadtgeschichte-die-steynhoftgruende), you do sports, hang around in the sun or visit the Art Nouveau church of Otto Wagner. You also have free entrance in the dark history of Nazi Austria (gedenkstaettesteinhof.at).

OPEN-AIR BATHING | INDOOR BATHING

Vienna has a great water quality (even the water from the tap is indeed mountain water), so swimming in the Danube in summertime can be real fun. Later in summer we would recommend the “Neue Donau” as the water is still the freshest. Please watch out that some spots you might meet strange people. Ask locals for recommendations.

Bathing on the Danube island (“Donauinsel”): wien.gv.at/freizeit/baden/natur/donauinsel

Bathing at the Old Danube (“Alte Donau”): wien.gv.at/umwelt/gewaesser/alte-donau/erholung

Bathing at more silent watery spots: wien.gv.at/freizeit/baden/natur/naturbadegewaesser

We also have a famous public bathing beach called “Gänsehäufel” (gaensehaeufel.at). It is an island with an interesting architecture of the 1940s surrounded by the Old Danube. So you can have a swim in the Danube and in open-air swimming pools. More public swimming pools:

If you want to experience something a bit outside of Vienna but easily to reach by public transport, try a jump into the wild and cold Danube in “Strombad Kritzendorf”:

klosterneuburg.at/Strombad_Kritzendorf

When it is too cold for outdoor swimming, have some fun in indoor swimming pools. Some of them even have really special architecture: theculturetrip.com/europe/austria/articles/10-of-viennas-best-indoor-swimming-pools. In the cold season Austria also offers you really good spa experiences, especially in Styria where we have thermal water deposits. One of the most stunning (but also pricey) spas is the Rogner Therme Blumau designed by Friedensreich

Hundertwasser (blumau.com).

VIENNESE CENTRAL CEMETERY

Vienna is known for its preference to morbidity, so you must go to one of Europe's biggest cemeteries: The Viennese Central Cemetery with its Art Nouveau church, with all its graves of honours, with its Jewish history, with all the animals (en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vienna_Central_Cemetery). It even has its own song by Wolfgang Ambros, Es lebe der Zentralfriedhof: youtube.com/watch?v=AoFnQ6hIG1w. Especially on November 1st, on All Hallows it is a very special Austrian tradition to visit your ancestors, so the cemeteries are basically packed with people.

GREEN ANGEWANDTE

- VIENNA HAS MOUNTAIN SPRING WATER FROM THE TAB! So there is no need to buy bottled water.
If you order Sodawasser at a restaurant, it is tap water with gas.
- RETHINK YOUR PURCHASE: Do I really need this? Is it made well? Where is it made? Will it last a while? Is it energy efficient? Will it replace something less energy efficient? Can I repair? Can I borrow it? Who earns the money for it? How and where was it produced? How long does it spark joy? Can I live without it?
- BUY AT OUR LOCAL DESIGNERS | DESIGN MARKETS e.g. Mondscheinbazar (mondscheinbazar.at), Fesch´markt (feschmarkt.info), Edelstoff Designmarkt (edelstoff.or.at)
- BUY | SWOP | GET SECOND-HAND FOR FREE e.g. Austrian craig´s list | ebay: (willhaben.at), Parish fleamarkets (flohmarkt.at/flohmaerkte/wien/45), second-hand-shop by the catholic church (carla-wien.at), Vienna´s collecting point of refuse-shop (48ertandler.wien.gv.at) or swop | get for free: kostnixladen.at

Also have a look on the website mundraub.org, where you can harvest fruits and veggies from ownerless plants for free. You also find sustainable food brands in our supermarkets like Zurück zum Ursprung, Ja! Natürlich, *Natur*Pur*. If you need a nice present of saved foods: unverschwendet.at. To empower everyone to take action against food waste: <https://toogoodtogo.de/> dieangewandte.at/aktuell/aktuell_detail?artikel_id=1569926194167

- IF POSSIBLE, USE SUSTAINABLE TRAVELLING Fly as rarely as possible (avoid short distances), less luggage is where possible, digital information is sufficient more often, nearby destinations can also be exciting (e.g. Vienna per pedes: wienzufuss.at/app, use public transport and bicycles on site (see "GETTING AROUND), you can also borrow a transport bike for free.
- AVOID DIGITAL WASTE As good as digitalization is and as it also helps us to react climate-friendly in a way, as important it is to also have the following in mind: Toxic metals of electronic devices lead to air-/soil-/water pollution, so maintain your electronics and donate or recycle your electronic gadgets, buy energy star rated electronics, delete data and e-mails which you do not read or need anymore (waste cloud). A documentary recommendation: welcome-to-sodom.de/
- LIVE GREEN: Beautify your room | your studio with plants, switch out lights when not needed, switch out stand-by devices (multipoint plug with on-off-button), rethink when you print, be a conscious user of our clean water, last but not least be a social, caring and kind person. You may volunteer, e.g. at caritas-wien.at or vinzi.at ☺
